

• Mary Brown Bullock Science Center, Agnes Scott College
 "Dance" Created for the Mary Brown Science Center at Agnes Scott College. The College commissioned the work as a memorial to alumna Elizabeth R. Griffin. A public arts display utilizing full color printed laminated glass panels designed by Deanna Sirlin.

• Armitage Station, Chicago, IL
 Installer: Botti Studios
 Public arts commission created for the Chicago Transit Authority presenting photography by Jonathan Gitelson. Standing 10ft tall and 45 ft in width, the 42 digital imaged photos are laminated in the glass panels are adhered to the wall with white and black painted glass frames.

• WFOR - CBS 4 - Miami, FL
 Digital image world map design printed on a 4ft x 12ft panel for CBS Chanel 4 set.

digital imaging

- Atlantic Investments

Multiple panels of photo sandblasted and printed graphics on pin mounted glass panels at Atlantic Investments lobby

- NCDR, Inc.

This backlit corporate signage comprised of white diffused glass with digital graphics is pin mounted on standoffs greets everyone as they enter the lobby.

- Stratix

Direct Image printing technology was used to create the data center image on frosted film for later application on the existing conference room wall.

digital imaging